Introduction

Business activity is fundamental and universal to our everyday lives. Business organisations may differ in many ways, depending on the industry in which they operate globally, but they do share one common feature: the transformation of inputs into outputs. This transformation process takes place against a background of external influences that impact on business activity. The external environment in which business organisations operate is dynamic, complex, volatile and interactive.

The aim of this unit is to give students background knowledge and understanding of business, of the functions of an organisation and of the wider business environments in which organisations operate. Students will examine the different types of organisations (including for profit and not for profit), their size and scope (for instance micro, SME, transnational and global) and how they operate. Students will explore the relationships that organisations have with their various stakeholders and how the wider external environments influence and shape business decision making.

The knowledge, understanding and skill sets that students gain in this unit will help them to have an insight into different business functions, which will support them with further study, support the development of analytical thinking and the application of key analytical tools used throughout business planning, and enable them to choose their preferred areas of specialism in future studies and in their professional career.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Explain the different types, size and scope of organisations
- LO2 Demonstrate the interrelationship of the various functions within an organisation and how they link to organisational structure
- LO3 Use contemporary examples to demonstrate both the positive and negative influence/impact the macro environment has on business operations
- LO4 Determine the internal strengths and weaknesses of specific businesses and their interrelationship with external macro factors.

Essential Content

LO1 Explain the different types, size and scope of organisations

Different types of organisations:

Differences between for profit and not for profit and non-government organisations (NGOs).

Micro-, small-, medium-sized enterprises (SMEs). Different business purposes, objectives and supply of goods and services.

The range of legal structures associated with different forms of business: sole traders, partnerships, limited companies.

Size and scope of organisations:

Differences between large-, medium-sized and small organisations, including objectives and goals, market share, profit share, growth and sustainability.

Global growth and developments of transnational, international and global organisations.

Differences between franchising, joint ventures and licensing.

Industrial structures and competitive analysis.

Market forces and economic operations, e.g. scarcity and choice, supply and demand, income elasticity.

Stakeholders and responsibilities of organisations to meet different stakeholder interests and expectations.

LO2 Demonstrate the interrelationship of the various functions within an organisation and how they link to organisational structure

The various functions within an organisation:

The role of marketing, finance, human resource management and operations within an organisational context and the interrelationships.

Functions in relation to overall organisation mission and objectives.

Organisational structure:

Different structures depending on the size and scope of the organisation, including bureaucratic and post-bureaucratic, parent, strategic business units (SBUs), matrix and functional levels.

The virtual organisation and flexible, fluid structures that are geographically dispersed.

Organisation structures and complexities of transnational, international and global organisations.

LO3 Use contemporary examples to demonstrate both the positive and negative influence/impact the macro environment has on business operations

The context of the macro environment:

The different political, economic, social, technological, legal and environmental factors that influence and impact the business environment.

The PESTLE framework as an analytical tool to monitor and forecast external influences.

Different spatial levels of external influences, e.g. local, regional, national, international

The macro factors that influence and impact on business activities:

The transformation of the work environment, the changing and emerging markets, the global shift in economic and social power due to international global crisis.

The impact of emerging digital technologies on production and consumption of products and services including:

- social and mobile technologies to engage and extend customer reach
- cloud technologies for making business more agile, collaborative and efficient
- Artificial Intelligence (AI) to sustain competitive advantage.
- Blockchain for e-commerce

Emerging new sectors creating new career opportunities due to new technologies e.g. data and analytics, digital advertising

The impacts of increased innovation and disruptive innovation.

The growth of data analytics and business intelligence using Big Data, to inform decision making, the rise of cybersecurity and data protection.

The impact of globalisation, e.g. changing workforce, cultural diversity.

The growth of ethical considerations and sustainable business, e.g. equality and diversity and corporate social responsibility.

Organisation operations:

Organisations' responses to transformation and managing resistance to change in response to a highly volatile and changing market environment.

Dealing with unexpected crises that affect business operations and activities, e.g. crisis management and recovery.

LO4 Determine the internal strengths and weaknesses of specific businesses and their interrelationship with external macro factors.

Frameworks for analysis:

Introduction to SWOT and/or TOWS analysis and how they can assist in the decision-making process and feed into business planning in organisations.

Different applications of SWOT analysis, e.g. for market positioning, commercial viability, launching a new product, methods of sales distribution.

Internal vs external factors:

Internal factors relating to products, pricing, costs, profitability, performance, quality, people, skills, adaptability, brands, services, reputation, processes, infrastructure.

Key external factors that inform opportunities and threats, including the competitive environment and government intervention, that influence organisations and business.

Introduction

Large-, medium- and small businesses that operate globally, internationally or locally have at least one thing in common – they all use marketing to influence us to engage with their products and/or services. Whether this means becoming a loyal customer buying a product and service or donating to a charity, organisations use a range of marketing techniques and tools to inform and influence us.

This unit is designed to introduce students to the dynamic world of the marketing sector and the wealth of exciting career opportunities available to support their decision making in their career choices. Students will have the opportunity to learn about the competencies and behaviours required by employers to work in the marketing sector. They will be introduced to the key principles of marketing, enabling them to develop a marketing plan and to employ elements of the marketing mix to achieve results. They will study the underpinning theories and frameworks of marketing while relating them to real-world examples, including products/services that they encounter in their daily lives.

The knowledge, understanding and skill sets that students will gain on successfully completing this unit will enhance their career opportunities; whether this is setting up their own business or employment in an organisation.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Explain the role of marketing and how it interrelates with other business units of an organisation
- LO2 Compare ways in which organisations use elements of the marketing mix to achieve overall business objectives
- LO3 Produce a marketing plan for an organisation that meets marketing objectives

Introduction

People are the lifeblood of any organisation and the ability to attract, recruit and retain talented staff is critical to the success of any organisation, whether in business, in voluntary organisations or in government. Human Resource Management (HRM) provides organisations with the principles, knowledge and behaviours to focus people-management activities on supporting and enhancing organisational success and performance.

This unit will give students the knowledge and skills associated with Human Resource (HR) occupational roles at either a generalist level, for example HR Assistant/HR Advisor/Business Partner, or more specialist roles in areas such as recruitment, talent acquisition and performance and reward management. Students will explore the nature and scope of HRM and the organisational context of people management, including recruitment and retention, training and development, reward systems, employment relations and associated legislative frameworks.

The aim of the unit is to enable students to understand and be able to apply principles of effective HRM in order to enhance sustainable organisational performance and contribute to organisational success, holding business outcomes and people outcomes in equal balance. Students will apply HR practices in a work-related context, utilising their knowledge and practising skills and behaviours in relevant professional areas, including resourcing, talent planning and recruitment, learning and development and employee engagement.

On completion of the unit, students will understand the purpose and scope of HRM activities. They will be able to apply a range of people-management skills to enhance the performance of an organisation by finding solutions to people-related problems.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit the student will be able to:

- LO1 Explain the impact of the role of HRM in creating sustainable organisational performance and contributing to business success
- LO2 Assess the contribution of HRM in recruiting and retaining talent and skills to achieve business objectives
- LO3 Examine how external and internal factors can affect HRM decision making in relation to organisational development
- LO4 Apply HRM practices in a work-related context for improving sustainable organisational performance.

Essential Content

LO1 Explain the impact of the role of HRM in creating sustainable organisational performance and contributing to business success

Nature and scope of HRM:

Definitions of HRM.

The different specialist areas of HR, e.g. resourcing, employee relations, organisational development and design, learning and development.

Generic HR competencies, e.g. design of people strategies, creating people management policies, employee engagement, supporting organisational change.

Typical roles in HR and responsibilities, e.g. HR advisor, HR officer, people data analyst, HR assistant, employee relations officer.

Specific skills, e.g. communication skills across all levels of the organisation, adaptability to changing work priorities and patterns, displaying tenacity and being proactive, keeping ahead of trends and changing legal and policy requirements.

Working within an ethical framework and within recognised best practice.

Strategic HRM:

The development of strategic HRM in terms of business vision, mission statement, business objectives and strategic aims.

The nature and use of data analytics to support achievement of business objectives and meeting strategic aims.

Hard and soft models of HRM.

Organisational performance:

The impact of HRM on organisational performance, e.g. effective recruitment and selection to meet specific knowledge and skills requirements, growing internal talent through training and development and focusing on longer-term resource issues.

Performance management systems to support high-performance working.

Methods to measure organisational and individual performance.

Types of pay and reward systems.

LO2 Assess the contribution of HRM in recruiting and retaining talent and skills to achieve business objectives

Resourcing the organisation:

Workforce planning and application of data analytics.

Assessing skills and capabilities using audits and gap analysis for identifying talent and skills gaps.

The elements of an end-to-end roadmap e.g. what is the plan, direction, skills needs, skills gaps and solutions.

Workforce trends, including flexible working arrangements, remote working, virtual meetings and social distancing measures.

Addressing diversity and inclusion.

Types of labour market and skills shortages affecting recruitment and hard-to-fill vacancies, e.g. lack of digital skills, leadership skills, data analytical skills.

Impact of relevant legislation, including data protection.

Recruitment and selection:

Different models of recruitment and selection.

Sources of recruitment, e.g. internal vs. external.

Achieving cultural diversity in recruitment.

Stages in recruitment and selection.

Different types of selection methods, including competence-based selection.

Legal frameworks and regulatory standards.

Retention:

Factors influencing retention, including the influence of the culture of the organisation on retention, selecting the right talent and performance management.

Onboarding and induction, the value of effective employee socialisation.

Role of line managers in employee engagement and performance management.

Managing attrition, restructuring and redeployment, redundancy of employees.

Dealing with employee disciplinarys and misconduct cases that end in dismissal.

LO3 Examine how external and internal factors can influence HRM decision making in relation to organisational development

External and internal factors:

Identifying factors external to the organisation that influence HRM:

- impact of external factors on organisational performance, including the skills gaps and labour force trends
- impact of globalisation on HR policies for equality, diversity and raising cultural awareness and sensitivity within the workplace
- impact of legal and regulatory frameworks.

Internal factors, including:

- the impact and influence of leadership styles on organisational transformation, culture and employee experience
- learning and development, how people learn, impact of digital learning
- the relationship between organisational culture and strategic planning and development
- impact of motivation upon performance.

Organisational development:

The changing work environment, e.g. need for flexible organisations and employees with adaptable skills and competencies.

Characteristics of agile organisations.

Digital transformation of HR functions, e.g. reporting dashboards and predictive models for advanced people analytics, Artificial Intelligence (AI) for talent acquisition, cloud capabilities for measuring team performance and calibration decision making.

LO4 Apply HRM practices in a work-related context for improving sustainable organisational performance.

Job descriptions and person specification:

Referencing workforce planning.

Assessing the need to create and fill a post.

Preparing different types of job description, including competence based and task based, assessing the merits of each type.

Identifying the qualities and attributes relevant to the design of a person specification.

Designing a person specification relevant to a chosen job role.

Recruitment and selection in practice:

Designing and placing job advertisements.

Shortlisting and processing applications.

Interviewing preparation and best practice.

Selection best practice.

Performance management:

Performance management aligned to workforce planning.

Methods of financial and non-financial rewards.

Staff development, e.g. continuous professional development and training.

Providing support and maintaining wellbeing.

Embedding learning and reflective practice in personal development planning.

Managing under performance, disciplinary, industrial disputes and grievance procedures.

Succession planning.

Employee relationship:

The employment relationship.

The psychological contract.

Employee voice and engagement.

Managing performance to attain competitive advantage and increase job satisfaction.

Introduction

The ability to lead and manage effectively is highly sought after by industry, as employers seek to produce and develop managers who can motivate, enthuse and build respect throughout their workforce. The hard and soft skills required by leaders and managers are frequently highlighted by employers as skills gaps in recruitment. Developing these skills will help students to meet career aspirations in leadership and management.

The aim of this unit is to help students to understand the difference between the function of a manager and the role of a leader. Students will consider the characteristics, behaviours and traits that support effective management and leadership. Students will learn about the theories that have shaped the understanding of leadership and management and how these have provided a guide to action for managers and leaders who want to secure success for their businesses. Students will look at leadership styles, how and why they are used and the extent to which they are effective.

This unit also gives students an understanding of motivational strategies. They will develop motivational strategies covering intrinsic and extrinsic aspects of motivation. Finally, students will evaluate the importance of managing performance in achieving continuous improvement.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Examine leadership and management theories and principles, and their impact on the effectiveness of an organisation
- LO2 Review the influence of different leadership and management styles on the culture of organisations
- LO3 Develop a motivational strategy to optimise organisational performance
- LO4 Apply leadership and management approaches to managing performance to ensure continuous improvement.

Essential Content

LO1 Examine leadership and management theories and principles, and their impact on the effectiveness of an organisation

Definitions of management:

Defining management, what management is (Fayol), what managers should do (Peters) and key roles (Mintzberg).

Key skills and competences of management, e.g. team dynamics, planning, decision making, strategic mindset, problem solving, communicating (verbal and non-verbal), motivating, delegating, managing discipline and dealing with conflict.

Management activities, e.g. planning, organising, motivating and controlling.

Approaches to management, e.g. task orientation and relationship orientation.

Theories of management:

Classical theorists, including Administrative (Fayol) and Scientific (Taylor).
Management as a function of organisations (Handy).

Modern management theorists, e.g. Porter, Kotler and Handy.

Theories and definitions of leadership:

Key theories and theorists, including:

- transformational (Burns)
- transactional (Bennis, Bass)
- situational/contingency (Fiedler, Vroom and Yetton, Hersey and Blanchard)
- charismatic (Conger, Kanungo)
- emotional (Goleman's six styles).

Leadership skills, e.g. communication, delegation, inspirational motivation, positive attitude, trustworthiness, creative thinking and innovative problem solving.

Competences, e.g. giving and receiving feedback, taking responsibility for both success and failure, managing cultural sensitivity and diversity, global outlook and agility.

The hard skills of management versus the soft skills of leadership.

Approaches to leadership, e.g. situational, transformational and inspirational.

Impacts of leadership and management:

Positive impacts for improving business performance, effective management of resources, innovation.

Negative impacts, e.g. loss of competitive advantage, stagnation and decline.

LO2 Review the influence of different leadership and management styles on the culture of organisations

Leadership styles:

Different types of leadership, including Tannenbaum and Schmidt's Continuum of Leadership Styles, Linkert's Systems 1–4, and McGregor's Theory X/Theory Y.

Adapting leadership styles to apply in different business situations and the required hard and soft skills.

Impacts of leadership and management styles on decision making in a business organisation.

Types of culture:

Defining culture and types of culture, including:

Introduction

Management accounting is a profession that supports management decision making, planning and performance management systems. Management accountants provide expertise in financial reporting and control to assist management in the formulation and implementation of an organisation's strategy by providing appropriate financial information and undertaking related accounts administration.

The overall aim of this unit is to introduce fundamental accounting principles that underpin financial operations and support good and sustainable decision making in any organisation. Students will develop a theoretical and practical understanding of a range of financial and management accounting techniques.

On successful completion of this unit, students will be able to assist senior colleagues in producing and analysing budgets, drawing up simple financial statements and using financial ratios to interpret performance. Students will also explore wider aspects of accountancy, especially ethics, transparency and sustainability, and gain fundamental knowledge and skills that will enable them to progress to a higher level of study.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Examine the context and purpose of accounting
- LO2 Prepare basic financial statements for unincorporated and small business organisations in accordance with accounting principles, conventions and standards
- LO3 Interpret financial statements
- LO4 Prepare budgets for planning, control and decision making using spreadsheets.

Essential Content

LO1 Examine the context and purpose of accounting

The accounting function in an organisation:

Different branches of accounting, e.g. financial, management, auditing, tax and forensic accounting.

Career opportunities in accounting and roles and responsibilities, e.g. accounts clerk, accounts assistant, qualified accountant.

Roles in commercial finance, e.g. cost analyst, business controller, pricing professionals and the global business services, e.g. purchase to pay (P2P) professionals and report to report (R2R) professionals.

Skills required for positions in accountancy and finance, e.g. numerical skills, problem solving, integrity, negotiation, customer service.

Key skills and competences for accounting roles, e.g. managing the sale and purchase ledger, ensuring accounts are up to date, supplier reconciliations, inputting sales invoices on an accounts system and recording payments received.

Users and uses of financial information.

Interrelationships between the accounting and finance functions of other areas of the organisation and increasingly complex operating environments.

Context and purpose of financial and management accounting:

Purpose and scope of accounting, to include recording, reporting, and analysing information to inform decision making.

Role of supporting and new information technologies to support accounting and decision making.

Management accounting information, including systems, e.g. cost accounting, inventory management, job costing.

The benefits (streamline reporting, accuracy), risks and limitations (security threats, loss of data through power outages) of management accounting information.

Presenting financial information in a reliable, accurate, timely and persuasive way to satisfy needs of internal and external stakeholders.

Accounting in an increasingly complex and fast-changing business environment, e.g. increased regulation and accountability, role of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), risk management, reputation, sustainability, governance.

Pros and cons of shared service centres and outsourcing accounting services.

LO2 Prepare basic financial statements for unincorporated and small business organisations in accordance with accounting principles, conventions and standards

The accounting concept:

The accounting concept as the foundation for all financial statements.

Capital and revenue items:

Classifying revenue and capital income and expenditures.

Producing basic financial statements:

Preparation of a profit and loss statement (income statement) and balance sheet (statement of financial position) for unincorporated organisations from a given trial balance.

Different types of income statements for sole trader, partnership and not for profit organisations.

Adjustments required for accruals, prepayments, bad debts, depreciation.

Value of using digital software for accounting and preparing for financial statements, e.g. QuickBooks, Sage, Xero.

LO3 Interpret financial statements

Importance and purpose of analysing financial statements:

To communicate financial positions and intentions with a range of stakeholders.

Ratio analysis:

Calculate profitability, liquidity, efficiency and investment ratios from given data.

Using calculated ratios to evaluate organisational performance.

Apply and critique relevant benchmarks, including time series, competitors, sector and internal.

Limitations of ratio analysis:

Ratio analysis as one means of measuring and evaluating the performance of an organisation, e.g. use of qualitative/non-financial measures.

Limitations of using ratios as a performance measurement tool.

The interrelationships between ratios.

Importance and purpose of analysis of financial statements:

The interpretation and analysis of financial statements in the business environment.

Interpreting the relationship between the elements of the financial statements, profitability, liquidity, efficient use of resources and financial position.

Interpreting financial statements for meeting key performance indicators (KPIs) and sustainable performance.

Application of financial statements in different business contexts and value of presenting to end user of the financial statements.

LO4 Prepare budgets for planning, control and decision making using spreadsheets

Nature and purpose of budgeting:

Budgets as a key management accounting tool.

Definitions and reasons organisations use budgets.

Stages in the budgeting process, master and functional budgets.

Corrective action to inform resource allocation and decision making.

Budget preparation and budgetary control:

Importance, role and limitations of budgets in controlling activity.

The principal budget factor and budget types, including fixed, flexible, zero based, incremental, rolling, activity based, value proposition.

Variance analysis.

The steps for the preparation of a cash budget.

Producing a spreadsheet:

The numerical and other information requirements for a spreadsheet and how it should be structured to meet user needs.

Using a spreadsheet and techniques to enter, edit and organise numerical and other data.

How to format spreadsheet cells, rows, columns and worksheets effectively using appropriate tools and techniques

Use of formulas and filters to enter, edit and present numerical data.

Visual representation of data and data analysis using pie charts, bar charts and graphs.

Inserting spreadsheet data into Word® documents.

Introduction

This unit is a Pearson-set unit. The project brief will be set by the centre, based on a theme provided by Pearson (this will change annually). The theme and chosen project within the theme will enable students to explore and examine a relevant and current topical aspect of business in the context of the business environment.

The skills of project management are highly sought after by employers in all areas of business, as the ability to plan, procure and execute a business project efficiently requires a range of specific skills in leadership, time management, problem solving, budgeting and communication.

The aim of this unit is to offer students an opportunity to demonstrate the skills required for managing and implementing a small-scale business project. They will undertake independent research and investigation for carrying out and executing a business project that meets appropriate business aims and objectives.

On successful completion of this unit, students will have the confidence to engage in decision making, problem solving and research activities using project-management skills. They will have the fundamental knowledge and skills to enable them to investigate and examine relevant business concepts in a work-related context, determine appropriate outcomes, decisions or solutions and present evidence to various stakeholders in an acceptable and understandable format.

*Please refer to the accompanying Pearson-set Assignment Guide and Theme and Topic Release document on HN Global for further support and guidance on the delivery of the Pearson-set unit

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Explain the key stages of the project lifecycle that should be considered when project managing
- LO2 Produce a Project Management Plan (PMP) for a business project using primary and secondary research methods
- LO3 Implement the Project Management Plan (PMP) to communicate results from the research and make conclusions from the evidence of findings
- LO4 Reflect on value gained from implementing the project and the project management process.

Essential Content

LO1 Explain the key stages of the project lifecycle that should be considered when project managing

Project management:

Defining project management.

The project lifecycle and the stages of the project lifecycle, e.g. initiation, planning, execution and closure.

The advantages of using project management and why it is important.

Roles in project managing, e.g. assistant project manager, junior project manager, project team leader and responsibilities to drive through the project and achieve required outcomes.

Project management skills, including good planning, organising, leadership and communication skills.

Compare different organisational approaches to project management using case studies.

Project management plans:

Scoping a project – defining objectives, scope, purpose and deliverables to be produced.

Developing the project plan, including planning for timescales and time management, cost, quality, change, risk, stakeholder communication.

Project management tools:

Different types of software and application used to support project management, e.g. Microsoft Project for tracking, managing and analysing projects and Asana for holistic project management and integration of workload, inbox, calendars and tasks.

Use of project-planning tasks and tracking tools, e.g. Trello, Smartsheet and Excel spreadsheets.

Tools and techniques used to create activity plans, work breakdown structure (WBS) and Gantt charts for effective planning.

Research methods and analysis:

Purpose of research in a project.

Research ethics, reliable research and valid research.

Selecting appropriate sample population and methods for information gathering, data collection and material resourcing.

Use of secondary research to inform a primary study.

LO2 Produce a Project Management Plan (PMP) for a business project using primary and secondary research methods

Research methods and strategies:

Primary and secondary research and data collection.

Defining qualitative and quantitative methods.

Selecting an appropriate strategy for the research, e.g. questionnaires, interviews, observation.

Use of monitoring tools, including WBS and Gantt charts.

Field work:

Different strategies that can be used to conduct research, e.g.:

- interviews, questionnaires, experiments
- selecting a sample of the consumer market, businesses or individuals
- sampling approaches and techniques, including probability and non-probability sampling.

Factors to consider, including:

- aim and objectives
- deliverables
- quality
- risk
- stakeholder communication
- resources.

LO3 Implement the Project Management Plan (PMP) to communicate results from the research and make conclusions from the evidence of findings

Analysis and evaluation of findings and data gathered:

Digital techniques and tools to analyse and evaluate the secondary and primary data gathered, e.g. online surveys (SurveyMonkey, Google Forms, Zoho Survey) and spreadsheets (Excel templates).

Techniques for data analysis, e.g. coding, charts and graphs, trend analysis.

Techniques to create pictograms, pie charts, bar charts, frequency curves, histograms, line graphs, scattergrams.

Use of scatter (XY) graphs and linear trend lines for forecasting (reliability).

Techniques for creating tables to simplify and rationalise the presentation of data to aid understanding of the information within data.

The benefits of data validity and maintaining objective mindset to provide objective results.

Communicating results:

Types of communication methods, e.g. written, verbal and the medium, e.g. different report formats, online, presentation.

Multi-media presentation tools: PowerPoint, Prezi, Google Slides, Microsoft Sway, Adobe Spark.

Video conferencing e.g. Zoom, Adobe Connect, Google Hangouts, Slack video calls.

Communicating skills:

Verbal and non-verbal communication skills required to meet audience requirements, e.g. eye contact, pitch, pace.

Communicating and persuading internal/external stakeholders, e.g. negotiation and sales skills.

Presentation, behaviour and conduct of presenter, e.g. attire, attitude, professionalism, suitable for audience, well prepared and organised.

Different communication formats to address different audience needs and expectations and appropriateness for meeting cultural diversity of an audience.

Convincing arguments:

Presenting logical and convincing findings and outcomes as part of the project process.

Developing evaluative conclusions.

LO4 Reflect on value gained from implementing the project and the project management process.

Reflection for learning and practice:

Differences between reflecting on performance and evaluating a project – the former considers the research process, information gathering and data collection, the latter the quality of the research argument and use of evidence.

The cycle of reflection and using reflection to inform future behaviour.

Reflective writing:

Writing to avoid generalisation, focusing on personal development and the research journey in a critical and objective way.

Introduction

Balancing the books is at the heart of all business management. Financial accountants are concerned with the recording, summarising and interpreting of financial information and accounts. They must keep accurate and up-to-date records for different types of businesses.

The overall aim of this unit is to introduce students to the essential principles of recording and organising business and financial transactions to which every organisation will need to adhere. Students will identify sources of accounting information and how it is then gathered and organised, using the dual entry bookkeeping system, in order to produce a trial balance.

On successful completion of this unit, students will be able to contribute effectively to the accounting and bookkeeping function of an organisation and understand how this is then the basis for producing financial statements. Students will be equipped with the knowledge and skills required to progress to a higher level of study.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Record business transactions using double entry bookkeeping, books of prime entry, journals and ledger accounts
- LO2 Prepare a trial balance for a given organisation from data provided
- LO3 Perform bank reconciliations to ensure organisation and bank records are correct
- LO4 Perform control account reconciliations for accounts receivable and accounts payable.

Essential Content

LO1 Record business transactions using double entry bookkeeping, books of prime entry, journals and ledger accounts

Business transactions:

Importance of recording business transactions.

The job role and responsibilities of the bookkeeper, e.g. posting transactions and maintaining ledgers, filing source documents, bank reconciliations, preparation of trial balance.

Skills and competences, e.g. attention to detail, IT literacy, data-entry skills, accuracy, integrity.

Different types of business transactions, e.g. sales, purchases, receipts and payments.

The different types of documentation for business transactions, e.g. invoices, purchase orders, receipts, statements.

Cash vs credit transactions.

The importance of accurate and timely recording of business transactions.

Accounting systems and double entry bookkeeping:

Types of accounting system, including single entry, double entry, manual, computerised.

The need for provision of accurate accounting information across an organisation to support decision making.

Understanding and applying the accounting equation.

Applying the concept of double entry accounting and the duality concept.

Identify the division of the ledger and books of prime entry and record sales, purchase and cash transactions.

Manual vs electronic accounting and bookkeeping systems, e.g. Sage, Xero, QuickBooks, cloud based.

LO2 Prepare a trial balance for a given organisation from data provided

Trial balance:

The purpose of a trial balance.

The steps taken to prepare a trial balance.

The benefits and limitations of the trial balance.

Extracting ledger balances into a trial balance.

Recording adjustments, including inventory, accruals and prepayments.

Trial balance and highlighting accounting errors:

The different types of errors that can be highlighted through the extraction of a trial balance.

Trial balance and link to financial statements:

The link between the trial balance and construction of business final accounts.

LO3 Perform bank reconciliations to ensure organisation and bank records are correct

Bank reconciliation:

The purpose of bank reconciliations and the main reasons for differences between the cashbook and the bank statement.

The process of reconciliation:

The use of the ledger to support the preparation of the bank reconciliation statement, including ensuring that all entries relating to specified periods are correctly entered to support the preparation of financial statements.

The steps to be taken in preparing bank reconciliation statements from data and identifying the correct bank balance to be reported in the final accounts.

Identifying variances through a bank reconciliation.

LO4 Perform control account reconciliations for accounts receivable and accounts payable

Control accounts:

The purpose of control accounts for accounts receivable and accounts payable.

The link between control accounts and the double entry system.

Control account reconciliations for accounts receivable and accounts payable.

Different ways in which control accounts support effective financial management within the organisation.

Suspense accounts:

The purpose of suspense accounts and how they differ from control accounts.

Identification of errors leading to the creation of a suspense account.

Recording entries in a suspense account and making journal entries to clear a suspense account.

Introduction

Operations management is everywhere, in every organisation, in every service experienced and in every product consumed. It is the administration of business practices to create the highest level of efficiency possible within an organisation. It is concerned with converting materials and labour into goods and services as efficiently as possible to maximise profits.

The aim of this unit is to enable students to explore how operations management manages all business activities to efficiently create and deliver products and services. This includes the transformation of inputs into outputs of finished goods and services, and activities throughout the supply chain. Students will explore the approach to quality management and continuous improvement in the production process. They will review how operations managers have to look externally as well as at internal processes, considering suppliers' performance and customers throughout the supply chain.

By the end of the unit, students will have an insight into the complex nature of operations, processes and supply chain management, fundamental for understanding the holistic work environment in any industry and organisation.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Examine the interrelationships of operations management with the other functions within an organisation
- LO2 Explain the importance of operations management in achieving effective organisational performance
- LO3 Investigate the importance of quality management and continuous improvement for optimising organisational performance
- LO4 Assess the role of supply chain management in supporting an organisation to satisfy customer requirements.

Essential Content

LO1 Examine the interrelationships of operations management with the other functions within an organisation

Operations, core and support functions:

Defining the operations function and management of activities to create and deliver products and services that include control and distribution systems, transformation process, process design, capacity management, logistics and inventory management.

Core functions of operations, e.g. marketing and product/service development.

Support functions, including accounting and finance, human resources, information systems and process technology.

Interrelationships between operations, core and support functions.

Operations management in manufacturing vs service sectors, profit and not for profit, SMEs and large organisations.

Input-transformation-output process:

Inputs, including raw materials, information, customers.

Transforming resources of facilities and staff.

Outputs of products and services, including facilitating services, service-conscious manufacturing and the servitisation of organisations, e.g. offer to customers of maintenance, maintenance support and training updates.

The process hierarchy – levels of process, the operation, supply network and individual processes. Internal and external customers.

Impact of the Four Vs on operations and processes – volume, variety, variation, visibility.

LO2 Explain the importance of operations management in achieving effective organisational performance

Importance of operations:

Improvement and innovation in operations function for driving organisational improvement, quality and organisational reputation.

Challenges faced in operations management:

Challenges, including

- cost-based competition
- increased customer expectations relating to quality and variety
- new technologies
- social and environmental issues
- globalisation
- partnership relationships
- reputation management.

Measures of operations performance:

Triple Bottom Line (TBL/3BL) and sustainability, strategic impact, including achieving objectives of revenue, risk, efficiency and innovation.

Operations performance objectives of quality, speed, dependability, flexibility and cost.

Emerging digital technologies:

Technologies for customisation of design products and services, e.g. Computer Aided Design (CAD).

Different software systems to integrate and streamline operations, e.g. Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP), Customer Relationship Management (CRM), Supply Chain Management (SCM).

Automation in production and operations reducing manual labour, e.g. in manufacturing.

LO3 Investigate the importance of quality management and continuous improvement for optimising organisational performance

Importance of quality:

Increased customer satisfaction, including loyalty and retention.

Improved organisational performance, e.g. market share, waste reduction, impact on costs and revenue, and improved operation processes.

The impact that quality has on reputation and employee motivation and engagement.

Different approaches to quality:

Total Quality Management (TQM) and developments from Deeming's original Fourteen Points for quality control for meeting customers' requirements, including employee involvement, process review and redesign, competitive benchmarking, 'right first time' and constant measurement of results.

Quality Systems approach to achieve quality management that documents structure, processes, roles and responsibilities, policies and procedures. ISO 9001, including the seven Quality Management Principles.

Lean approaches for systematic waste minimisation, including Just-in-Time (JIT), Kaizen, 5S and Kanban.

Six Sigma reducing process variation and enhancing process control, including Define, Measure, Analyse, Improve and Control (DMAIC).

Lean Six Sigma – driving out waste, work standardisation and flow.

Integrated quality improvement philosophy of continuous improvement.

LO4 Assess the role of supply chain management in supporting an organisation to satisfy customer requirements.

The scope of supply chain management:

The difference between supply chains and supply networks.

Internal and external supply chains.

Tangible and intangible supply chains.

Supply chain performance objectives:

Different objectives of quality, speed, including responsiveness to customer demand and the impact on inventory, dependability, flexibility/agility, cost, sustainability.

Lean vs agile supply networks:

Lean supply networks, efficiency and the functional product.

Agile supply networks, responsiveness and the innovative product.

Managing supply chain relationships:

In-house vs outsourcing of activities.

Contract-based/transactional relationships vs long-term/partnership relationship.

Characteristics, advantages and disadvantages of these relationships.

Supply side management and the four key approaches of multiple, single, delegated and parallel sourcing.

Global sourcing and benefits and risks of global sourcing.

Demand side management, components, including logistics services, which includes in-house and outsourcing, and customer relationship management (CRM).

Introduction

Organisational behaviour is concerned with understanding, explaining and predicting the behaviour of individuals in the workplace and can assist in the development of practical solutions to organisational and managerial problems. Individuals, whether acting in isolation or collectively as part of a group, engage in actions and behaviours that can have a positive or negative impact on company performance and the achievement of strategic goals. It is therefore essential that those who are involved in managing and leading people in organisations, acquire insight and expertise in organisational behaviour.

The aim of this unit is to develop knowledge and understanding of how organisational behaviour concepts, theories and techniques can be applied in work and management settings in order to enhance individual, team and organisational performance. Students will be able to apply this knowledge in a variety of business situations. They will appreciate how effective application of organisational behaviour principles can be used to explain why people behave and act in particular ways and to predict how employees will respond to certain demands. The unit also develops student understanding of the influence of culture, the operation of power and politics in organisations and how these variables influence the actions and behaviour of people in an organisational context.

On successful completion of this unit, students will have developed a range of transferable skills and knowledge. This includes core people management skills used to achieve positive organisational outcomes and to create value by recognising individual difference, team working and the creation of inclusive organisational cultures.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Reflect on own personality and perceptions to understand how individual difference informs and influences management approaches
- LO2 Apply content and process theories of motivation to create and maintain an effective workforce
- LO3 Participate in a group team activity for a given business situation to demonstrate effective team skills
- LO4 Examine how power, politics and culture can be used to influence employee behaviour and accomplish organisational goals.

Essential Content

LO1 Reflect on own personality and perceptions to understand how individual difference informs and influences management approaches

Individual difference: personality.

Approaches to the study of human personality. Nomothetic and idiographic perspectives and implications.

Debates around measuring and testing human personality.

The 'big five' dimensions of human personality: extroversion, agreeableness, conscientiousness, emotional stability and openness to experience.

Debates around individual personality differences and abilities. The extent that personality dimensions link to job roles and performance, job attitudes, leadership and teamworking abilities.

Application of personality and other forms of psychometric assessments in selection and promotion decisions, team-building and professional development programmes.

Emotional intelligence as a related concept of human personality.

Individual difference: perception:

Significance of perception for developing effective personal and work relationships.

Factors that influence an individual's perceptual set, e.g. personality, past experiences, expectations, learning.

Relationship between perception and behaviour.

Perceptual errors and distortions, including stereotyping, unconscious bias and how cultural differences can be misconstrued.

The relationship between perception and communication.

Verbal and non-verbal communication, selecting information and making judgements.

Attribution theory and interpersonal perception.

LO2 Apply content and process theories of motivation to create and maintain an effective workforce

Motivational theories:

Main features of key models and their underpinning assumptions of content and process theories of motivation.

Content theories, including Alderfer, Herzberg, Maslow, McClelland.

Process theories, including Adams, Latham and Locke, Porter and Lawler.

The implications of motivational theory for management and leadership practice in organisations.

Differences between intrinsic and extrinsic motivation.

The relationship between motivation, job satisfaction and employee commitment and engagement.

Modifying employee on-the-job behaviour through reinforcement initiatives.

Application of motivation theories:

Characteristics and behaviours of employees who demonstrate low- and high motivation.

Implications of motivation theories for the design of work.

The job characteristics model of Hackman and Oldham.

Implications of motivation theories for the design of reward and benefit packages.

The concept of empowerment and empowering people to meet higher-level needs.

Human motivation as a complex, dynamic and culture-bound concept, affected by a range of personal, generational and environmental factors.

LO3 Participate in a group team activity for a given business situation to demonstrate effective team skills

Different types of organisational teams:

The importance of work groups and effective teamworking in contemporary organisations.

Types of teams, e.g. functional and cross-functional, problem-solving, project and self-directed teams.

The impact of globalisation and digital technologies on organisational teams to include virtual and cross-cultural teams. Diversity and issues of communication, leadership and insufficient support.

Digital tools for communication, e.g. Slack, Skype, Microsoft Teams, for project management, e.g. Trello and Smartsheet.

Cloud-based technologies for file sharing, collaboration and storing information.

Team dynamics and teamwork:

Differences between groups and teams.

Team development models: the stages of team development and the implications for task achievement and team-member relationships. development.

Belbin's role typology for creating effective teams and consideration of skills required for resolving team conflict and creating effective teams.

The concept of cohesiveness and the role and importance of norms.

Issues with cohesive teams, e.g. groupthink, suspicion and aggression towards outsiders, resistant to change.

Challenges in facilitating cohesiveness in global, virtual and diverse teams.

LO4 Examine how power, politics and culture can be used to influence employee behaviour and accomplish organisational goals.

Influence of power:

Power as a property viewpoint: individual, relationships and embedded in structures. Hard and soft sources of power.

Bases and types of power, power controls and power sources. The use of power as an influencing mechanism in different circumstances and situations, to achieve organisational goals and influence employee behaviour and performance.

Influence of politics:

Organisational politics arising from structural divisions, differing priorities and interests and when policies and rules are interpreted or acted on differently.

Political activity during periods of organisational change, political behaviour associated with conflict and resistance.

Influence of culture:

Culture as key variable affecting organisational success and factors that influence it, e.g. nature of business, company goals, employee behaviours, diversity.

Introduction

This unit is designed to enhance students' knowledge and understanding of the consumer's decision-making process. To gain competitive advantage and maintain market share, organisations understand the importance of seeking answers to questions such as:

- How do we buy products and services?
- What motivates us to seek out a particular product or service?
- What research do we undertake prior to making a decision?
- Do we seek out other people's opinions through social media and other digital technologies?
- To what extent do other people's opinions influence our own?
- How do we feel after we have made the purchase?

The answers to these types of questions help marketers to understand the processes behind consumer purchase decisions, which allows organisations to adapt the marketing mix and enhance the customer experience.

Students will learn the underpinning theories and frameworks, and will be expected to relate them to real-world examples across a range of organisational contexts.

The knowledge, understanding and skill sets that students gain on successfully completing this unit will enhance their career opportunities, whether they are starting their own business or working for an organisation in a marketing function.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Investigate characteristics and influences on consumer decision-making processes in different organisational contexts
- LO2 Apply techniques to enhance the customer experience and develop customer relationships for marketing purposes
- LO3 Evaluate measures and metrics that seek to improve customer experience for a range of products and services
- LO4 Devise measures and metrics to improve customer experience within a given organisational context.

Essential Content

Consumer influences on different aspects of the business, e.g. supply chain, finance, suppliers.

Consumer influences on marketing strategies:

Consumer influences on the processes of segmentation, targeting and positioning to support differentiation in the market.

Adaptation of the extended marketing mix (7Ps) for different customer requirements.

Models of consumer decision making.

The five-stage buying process.

The value of mapping a path to purchase, e.g. the consumer-decision journey from pre-purchase, purchase, receive and post-purchase.

Levels of consumer decision making and extensive problem solving, limited problem solving and routine response behaviour.

Four views of consumer decision making: economic, passive, emotional and cognitive.

Business to Customer (B2C) and Business to Business (B2B) decision-making processes.

LO2 Apply techniques to enhance the customer experience and develop customer relationships for marketing purposes

Understanding the customer journey:

The concept of the customer journey, including:

- mapping the journey
- service satisfaction
- critical incidents
- moments of truth
- customer touch points
- service blueprints
- ladder of loyalty.

Influences from digital technologies, e.g. online forums, comparison websites, social media, online buying.

Customer touch points and using technology at each touch point, e.g. adverts, emails, social media, apps.

Digital technologies to manage the customer experience, e.g. direct marketing and selling, use of algorithms and Artificial Intelligence (AI), online complaint handling, post-purchase management.

Enhancing customer experience:

Different methods, including mapping the customer journey, identifying opportunities and touchpoints for improvements, closing gaps in experience vs expectations, extending the relationship cycle.

Customer relationship management, including:

- concept
- systems
- managing all face-to-face interactions
- enhancing customer value
- dynamic approach – continuous improvement.

Building loyalty with customers and the relationship between enhanced customer experience and brand loyalty.

Personalisation and how it affects customer experience.

Marketing purposes:

Developing customer experience strategy and actions to deliver a positive customer experience and raise satisfaction levels:

- optimising engagement at all stages of the customer journey and giving the customer centre stage
- setting meaningful actions across all interactions in the customer journey
- creating appropriate marketing content at each stage, e.g. guides at awareness stage and video demos at conversion stage.

Techniques for enhancing customer experiences and satisfaction to inform marketing decisions and objectives.

Adapting the marketing mix and analysis of marketing opportunities.

LO3 Evaluate measures and metrics that seek to improve customer experience for a range of products and services

Research sources and methods for monitoring customer experience:

Data sources, both primary and secondary and quantitative and qualitative.

Different research methods applied to quantitative and qualitative.

Influences of technology on data sources, e.g. gathering, management, analysis.

Benefits and limitations of customer metrics:

Different metrics, including Customer Satisfaction Score (CSAT), Net Promoter Score (NPS), First Response Time, Customer Effort Score (CES), average resolution time, conversion rates.

Complaints and complaint handling.

Customer retention: rate, loyalty and churn.

Customer lifetime value, brand ambassadors.

The impact of Artificial Intelligence (AI) on customer behaviour and tracking.

Introduction

To support digital transformation and growth, business organisations are becoming more digital savvy and are developing digital marketing plans. The role of digital marketing is to help organisations gain new traffic, leads and sales for their business by expanding reach to consumers looking for products and services.

The aim of this unit is to introduce students to digital marketing and its importance in the successful marketing of organisations. The unit will enable students to develop an understanding of how organisations use various digital tools and techniques to engage their customers and maintain a competitive advantage.

Digital marketing is a major component of the successful marketing of organisations. The digital landscape is continually evolving, it is important for marketers to stay ahead of their competitors and deliver cutting-edge digital marketing approaches and strategies.

This unit is designed to give students the knowledge and tools to work as part of a digital marketing team or to go on to further study in this specific area.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Investigate the influence of the digital environment for effective marketing of business organisations
- LO2 Apply digital tools and techniques for an integrated marketing approach within a given business organisation
- LO3 Design a digital marketing campaign using multimedia to optimise content that targets key audiences

Introduction

Creating brand awareness among customers at a minimal cost is key for all businesses as they strive to create a seamless experience for consumers to interact with their brand through multimedia options. Integrated marketing communication helps in integrating all the essential components of marketing to communicate a similar message to potential and existing end-users.

This unit is designed to develop students' knowledge and understanding of marketing communications and the techniques used. They will learn underpinning theories and frameworks of marketing and be able to relate them to real-world examples, for example promotions they are likely to encounter in their daily lives.

An organisation may create and develop a revolutionary new product or service but they need to use the most appropriate methods of promoting it to their target audience – this is the role of marketing communications. We encounter hundreds of promotions every day of our lives and the challenge for marketers is to be able to cut through the multitude of communications from potential competitors to deliver and reinforce the association with the brand.

The knowledge, understanding and skill sets that students will gain on successfully completing this unit will enhance their career opportunities, whether they are setting up their own business or if they are employed by an organisation.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Evaluate marketing channels for achieving communication objectives as part of a communications strategy
- LO2 Develop an integrated marketing communications plan to achieve specified communication objectives in a business context
- LO3 Produce appropriate content for a marketing channel that meets specified communication objectives
- LO4 Apply methods for monitoring an integrated marketing communications plan (IMC) to maximise reach and achieve positive return on investment (ROI).

Essential Content

LO1 Evaluate marketing channels for achieving communication objectives as part of a communications strategy

Different channels of marketing communications:

Definitions of marketing communications.

Channels of marketing communications, including paid media, earned media and owned media.

Introduction

This unit gives students a comprehensive overview of the essential pitching and negotiation skills required to win new contracts on agreeable terms. Good pitching skills for a new product or service will generate sales and networking opportunities, while negotiating with different people and in different business transactions will secure more favourable deals. These transferable skills can be applied in various contexts to add value to a business.

These skills are essential for the managing and running of a small business or for being part of a dynamic and innovative workforce. Individuals and groups working in key sales, tendering and contracting roles benefit from developing their skills further to increase and maintain a competitive edge within its markets.

This unit aims to give students a knowledge base and tools that will help them to develop these skills. Topic areas that they will investigate include analysing context prior to negotiation, information management prior to and during negotiation, the process of developing and presenting a case and being able to assess the successes of a new pitch.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Evaluate the context of a negotiation and identify the key considerations to prepare for a negotiation
- LO2 Manage information and documentation relevant to tenders and contracts
- LO3 Develop a pitch to achieve a sustainable competitive edge
- LO4 Assess the outcome of a pitch and negotiation.

Essential Content

LO1 Evaluate the context of a negotiation and identify the key considerations to prepare for a negotiation

Context for negotiating:

The rationale for negotiation and the importance of negotiating skills in the workplace.

Generating new business and winning new deals.

Key negotiation tactics and strategies for group and individual negotiations.

Preparing to negotiate and the Request For Proposal (RFP) process.

Ethical behaviours in negotiation versus unethical

Closing a deal e.g. creating and finalising a contract.

The value of understanding the context and behavioural factors that influence individuals in a negotiation, including cultural awareness and differences in international business negotiations.

The value of forming and building long term negotiation relationships

Collapse and recovery when negotiating.

LO2 Manage information and documentation relevant to tenders and contracts

Context for tendering:

Key sources of information required during a negotiation, contextual information, client data, new solution information and contingencies.

The key elements of an RFP document.

The contractual process for both personal and classified information.

The key elements of master agreements and statements of work.

Contract law and compliance of processes, bribery and corruption, conflict of interest.

Amending contracts and breaches of terms and conditions.

Defining procurement and the different types of procurement processes.

Online bidding and tendering.

LO3 Develop a pitch to achieve a sustainable competitive edge

Developing a competitive strategy for pitching:

The benefits of having a sustainable competitive advantage.

The types of sustainable competitive advantage e.g. cost, value focus.

The structure of pitching with emphasis on the value of brand loyalty, innovation and networking and partnerships, fit-for-purpose steps and stages to consider.

Building the bridge of trust during a pitch and the importance of providing realistic solutions to problems, opportunity focus and partnership approaches.

Importance of relationship building during negotiation.

Methods for managing a negotiation team versus individual

Determining key outcomes and the pursuit of value.

Dealing with rejection and asking for referrals.

Tactics for avoiding misunderstanding

Summarising and follow-up.

Stages of negotiation process:

Preparation and planning

Discussion and defining ground rules

Clarification of goals

Negotiate and bargain towards a Win-Win outcome

Agreement

Implementation of a course of action

Pitching and presentation skills:

Audience awareness, research and sensitivity.

Competitor research.

Business and product narratives.

Structure and time.

Verbal and non-verbal communication to meet audience requirements.

Communicating and persuading internal and external stakeholders.

Strong negotiation and sales skills, e.g. persuasion, strategising, compromising and co-operating.

Presentation, behaviour and conduct of presenter, e.g. attire, attitude, professional conduct, suitability for audience, preparation and organisation.

LO4 Assess the outcome of a pitch and negotiation.

Outcomes of a pitch and negotiation:

Determining key outcomes and tangible success indicators for negotiation.

Contingency planning for dealing with rejection.

Contractual implementation and fulfilling obligations, on-going monitoring/review of contracts.

Managing relationships and generating incremental revenue.

Terminating contracts.

Record keeping and analysis for future tender development.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Pass	Merit	Distinction
LO1 Evaluate the context of a negotiation and identify the key considerations to prepare for a negotiation		D1 Critically evaluate the steps of the negotiation process and present valid solutions for dealing with issues that can arise.
P1 Determine what is a negotiation, why it occurs and who the key stakeholders are during a negotiation process. P2 Evaluate the key steps and considerations required for negotiating and generating deals.	M1 Present a concise rationale for the negotiation process, including detailed steps that organisations go through during a negotiation process.
LO2 Manage information and documentation relevant to tenders and contracts		D2 Critically evaluate the competitive tendering and contract process and make recommendations for completing a successful tender with minimal risk.
P3 Examine the RFP process and the relevant types of information and documentation required. P4 Discuss the contractual process and how relevant documentation is managed and monitored.	M2 Evaluate the RFP process in an organisational context, outlining the key documentation and information required, and consequences of breaching the terms of an agreement.

Introduction

Research skills are as vital for the workplace as they are for academic development. Research skills enable students to identify a problem, collect informational resources that can help address the problem, evaluate the resources for quality and relevance, and come up with an effective solution to the problem. These are seen as essential skills by employers for most positions in industry, to support a range of duties, for example report writing, building a business case, business planning, launching a new product or service.

This is a Pearson-set unit. Students will choose their own project based on a theme provided by Pearson (this will change annually). The project must be related to their specialist pathway of study (unless they are studying the general business pathway). This will enable students to explore and examine a relevant and current topical aspect of business in the context of the business environment and their chosen specialist pathway.

The aim of this unit is to offer students the opportunity to engage in sustained research in a specific field of study. The unit enables students to demonstrate the capacity and ability to identify a research theme, to develop a research aim and objectives and to present the outcomes of such research in both written and verbal formats. The unit also encourages students to reflect on their engagement in the research process, during which recommendations for future, personal development are key learning points.

*Please refer to the accompanying Pearson-set Assignment Guide and Theme Release document for further support and guidance on the delivery of the Pearson-set unit.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this unit a student will be able to:

- LO1 Examine appropriate research methodologies and methods to identify those appropriate to the research process
- LO2 Develop a research proposal, including a supporting literature review
- LO3 Analyse data using appropriate techniques to communicate research findings
- LO4 Reflect on the application of research methodologies and process.

Essential Content

LO1 Examine appropriate research methodologies and methods to identify those appropriate to the research process

The research process:

The distinct phases of research, including research aims and objectives, methodology, literature review, methods, analysis and presentation of findings.

The use of secondary data to inform primary data collection.

Explorative, descriptive and causal research approaches.

Research methodologies and methods:

Different research methodologies underpinning a philosophical approach: positivism (deductive) vs interpretivism (inductive) paradigms.

Conceptual framework of ideas, philosophies, approaches and concepts to conduct research.

Qualitative and quantitative research methods.

Mixed method approaches, including limitations and advantages.

Associated tools and techniques, e.g. focus groups, in-depth surveys, questionnaires.

Ethics, reliability and validity:

Role and significance of ethics in conducting research, e.g. informed consent, confidentiality.

Reliability of research and degree to which research methods produce consistent results.

Validity of research to extend to which results measure what they are supposed to measure.

LO2 Develop a research proposal, including a supporting literature review

Developing a research proposal:

Developing a methodical and valid proposal as the foundation for a research project.

Purpose and significance of the research question/hypothesis.

Clarity on the research aim and supporting objectives, and how these may change as the research process unfolds.

Application of research methods and ethical considerations that need to be addressed in conducting the research.

Literature review:

The purpose of the literature review, e.g. to explore, summarise, compare and critically analyse what other researchers have written about the research topic.

Adopting a 'funnel' approach, balancing focus and depth.

Positioning a research project in context of existing knowledge. Identification of relevant schools of thought and/or seminal research works.

Potential to open up new gaps in knowledge or levels of awareness.

LO3 Analyse data using appropriate techniques to communicate research findings

Primary data collection and sampling:

The significance of gathering primary data, qualitative or quantitative, to support research analysis.

Characteristics of primary data.

Selecting sample types and sizes relevant to the research.

Alternative random and non-random probability sampling approaches.

Different digital tools for data gathering, e.g. SurveyMonkey, Google Forms, SurveyGizmo.

Analysing data:

Quantitative data: validation, editing, coding and analysis.

Qualitative data: data preparation and analysis of content, narrative and discourse approaches.

Communicating research outcomes:

Alternative methods of communicating outcomes persuasively and logically.

Recognising methods, e.g. spoken word and medium, e.g. presentation.

The influences of research and intended audience.

Use of frequency tables, simple tables, pie charts, histograms, frequency curves and normal curve.

Advantages and disadvantages of different methods.

Software for analysing and presentation of quantitative data, e.g. Excel, SPSS.

LO4 Reflect on the application of research methodologies and process.

Reflection for learning and practice:

Difference between reflecting on performance and evaluating a research project including the research process, the quality of the research argument and use of evidence.

Reflection on the merits, limitations and potential pitfalls of chosen methods.

The cycle of reflection:

Critical and objective self-reflection to inform personal development along the research journey.

Reflection in action and reflection on action.

Using self-reflection to inform and develop future behaviours, considerations and actions.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Pass	Merit	Distinction
LO1 Examine appropriate research methodologies and methods to identify those appropriate to the research process		LO1 and LO2 D1 Justify chosen research methodologies and processes supported by a credible academically underpinned literature review.
P1 Examine alternative research methodologies. P2 Explore alternative methods and tools used for the collection of research data that consider costs, ethics and access.	M1 Evaluate alternative research methodologies and data collection methods and justify choices made based on philosophical/theoretical frameworks.
LO2 Develop a research proposal, including a supporting literature review
P3 Produce a research proposal, including a defined aim and objectives supported by a literature review.	M2 Evaluate the merits, limitations and pitfalls of approaches to data collection in compiling the research proposal.
LO3 Analyse data using appropriate techniques to communicate research findings		D2 Communicate to the intended audience the research findings and outcomes, including justified recommendations.
P4 Conduct research using appropriate methods for a business research project. P5 Analyse data from research findings to communicate research outcomes in an appropriate manner for the intended audience.	M3 Present the analysis of data utilising appropriate analytical techniques, charts and tables to meet the research aim and communicate outcomes.
LO4 Reflect on the application of research methodologies and process.		D3 Demonstrate critical self-reflection and insight that results in recommended actions for improvements to inform future research.
P6 Reflect on the effectiveness of research methods applied in meeting objectives of the business research project. P7 Consider alternative research methodologies and lessons learnt in view of outcomes.	M4 Demonstrate self-reflection and engagement in the research project process, leading to recommended actions for future improvement.
